Comment. Compared with the first ten-day period in February, incoming traffic through Bad Schandau decreased from a daily average of 546 to one of 474 carloads, outgoing traffic from a daily average 610 to one of 464 carloads, This volume of traffic was below normal. Crude oil imports from Austria dropped from a previous average of 50 carloads to one of 24 carloads. However, it must be taken into account that crude oil shipments also arrived via Ebersbach during the reported period.
